Call to Worship

One: Early Christians found God in every aspect of life, and they gathered to share their lives as a community.

All: We, too, seek God in our everyday lives, and we gather to share our lives with each other.

One: Early Christians made mistakes; they didn't always share or convey healthy relationships in their community.

All: We, too, are not perfect; and we need God's help to share and build healthy relationships in this community.

One: Early Christians found hope in their practice of sharing a meal, where they tried to follow Christ's example.

All: We, too, find hope in the teachings and practices from our God, and we desire to be closer to Christ in our practice of sharing a meal this day and everyday.

One: You are invited today to gather, break bread, give thanks to God, and share in a meal that brings us all closer to God and one another. Welcome to worship!

*Hymn God Welcomes All #399

*Prayer of Confession

All: God-made-flesh, bone of our bone, we confess that we think we can go it alone. We try to do it all, and we neglect the gifts you have given us, the bodies you have granted us, and the relationships you have created for us. Jesus Christ, you who lived in a human body, call us to community, remind us that we are one in you, awake in us a respect for one another, and celebrate with us the awesome diversity created within your unity.

*Silent Prayer: Amen
