July 2025

Summer, especially July, means picnics, grilling, and of course, camp! Five of our youth are going to camp at the Kirkmont Center again this year, and Ashley Roberts will also be going as a counselor. Ashley has been a counselor at Kirkmont for many years, giving up a week of her vacation every year to do so. She deserves a big round of applause for spending her vacation week with a cabin full of chatty, sweaty girls! What a blessing she is to those girls!

We are also sending two of our teens to Triennium in Louisville. Thousands of high school age and adult youth workers meet in Louisville for four days of worship, recreation, Bible study, outreach, and faith formation. Triennium is an amazing experience for our youth, and we are so happy as a church to be able to send them. What a blessing this is to all who attend!

All of these camps are made possible through scholarships for our youth through our Sewell Scholarship program, set up by John and Jean Sewell many years ago. Their contribution to the endowment fund was truly a blessing.

How can you become a blessing to our church? These ideas are written in an article by Kate McVeigh on the Cfaith.com website.

1. Ask not what your church can do for you but what you can do for your church. If there are things that you really like or dislike about our church, please let session know! Our congregational conversations have been great in this regard, and we will plan for another one in the fall.
2. Pray for your pastor, or in our case, our pastor supply, daily. Those serving as pastor supply sometimes travel a good distance to serve our congregation. They give us variety in preaching styles while helping us with our own Faith journeys. Make sure to thank them for their service to us during our time of transition.
3. Get involved in the ministry of helps. If you really want to be a blessing, then be available for anything that the church needs to run smoothly. It may be greeting, taking up the offering, providing breakfast in the summer, helping with the Presbyterian potty project, etc.
4. Invite people to church. You never know what a simple invitation will do to bring Christ into someone's life.

And enjoy the blessings that the summer months, such as July, give to us. I love to listen to the birds singing, being amazed at how quickly the corn grows, looking at the beautiful flowers along the roadsides, and just being outdoors. God gives us so much to be grateful for. This is the day that the Lord has made! Let us rejoice and be glad in it!

Prayer Concerns

Please note: Specific information about those included in our prayers is available during worship, from Pastor Amy, in our office, or from our Session members. However, specific names will not be posted on this web version of the newsletter.

Please pray for those with health concerns no matter what their stage of life.

Please pray for those servicing in the military, both at home and overseas, as well as the families who watch and wait for them.

Please pray for those who are either waiting for or who have received organ transplants and the families who face difficult decisions.

Please pray for those facing decisions in their personal lives, their professional lives, their family lives, or their spiritual lives.

Please include a prayer of thanks for the time our congregation had under the leadership of Rev. Amy. And likewise, we pray for her family in their new endeavors.

Please pray for our Pastor Nominating Committee as they dedicate time and prayer to the process of finding new pastoral leadership for our church.

And finally, please say a prayer of thanksgiving for the blessings of this congregation—as we continue to celebrate and enjoy more than 175 years of congregational life here in Ottawa!
